

Internship Opportunities at Childsplay

Childsplay is always seeking highly motivated, creative and organized individuals to join our ensemble. Childsplay offers internships in arts administration, production, marketing and education.

As an organization, we are committed to building internships around the skills, interests and learning needs of each individual. Accordingly, we will not post specific job descriptions; instead, we will work with individual interns to create a set of artistry and learning goals that will serve as a guideline for their time with Childsplay.

An ideal intern:

- Understands and effectively communicates the mission of the company
- Has a true desire to be part of the Childsplay ensemble which is a community of motivated and invested professionals who work together to fulfill Childsplay's mission in an environment where creativity and participation are honored in all
- Works closely with members of the ensemble to develop creative concepts that effectively communicate the Childsplay experience to our various markets and constituencies
- Creates and completes projects on time and within budget constraints
- Manages and builds relationships with community partners and ensemble members
- Is self-motivated in seeking out projects and tasks

Basic Requirements:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to handle and prioritize multiple projects and to adjust to inevitable changes in timelines, deadlines, and project goals
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office
- Interest in the arts, education and/or non-profit sector is preferred
- Sense of humor is a plus!
- The only thing you know for certain is that you don't know it all and relish the prospect of being a part of a learning organization.

Application:

Applicants must submit a resume and cover letter that details your interest in an internship, what you hope to get out of the experience and why you think you would be a good fit at Childsplay. Materials can be submitted to:

Samantha Johnstone, Marketing & Media Manager
Childsplay, Inc.
Campus for Imagination and Wonder
900 S. Mitchell Dr. Tempe, AZ 85281

Email submissions can be made to sjohnstone@childsplayaz.org. No FAX submissions.
